

AllerGen Students and New Professionals Network (ASNP) APPLICATION FORM

Please submit your resume/CV with the membership application.

Trainees and new professionals working on AllerGen-funded research projects are automatically ASNP members. Students and new professionals not directly involved in AllerGen research, but training or working in the field of allergy, asthma and/or anaphylaxis and related immune disease research may apply for membership.

Name of Applicant:		Sex:
Institution:		Work Phone:
Department:		Cell Phone:
Program:		Supervisor:
E-mail Address:		Supervisor's Email:
Please check the appropriate box (current degree of study or employment):
<input type="checkbox"/> Undergraduate	<input type="checkbox"/> Masters (c)	<input type="checkbox"/> PhD (c)	<input type="checkbox"/> Postdoc
<input type="checkbox"/> Research staff	<input type="checkbox"/> Other:
Thesis: (if applicable)		Expected completed date:
Briefly explain your research focus.
Briefly explain how ASNP membership will benefit your career development.
By providing your signature below: (i) You confirm that you consent to and agree to receive electronic messages from AllerGen NCE. (ii) You consent to and agree that AllerGen may use your image, name and a summary of your expertise in print and electronic communications, including web-based platforms, in relation to your role as an AllerGen Board Member. AllerGen NCE Inc. respects your privacy and does not sell its participant lists.
Signature:		Date:

Return completed application to Leah Graystone, HQP Program Coordinator at leahgraystone@allergen-nce.ca